CHALET MOON: WHERE CONTEMPORARY DESIGN MEETS AN EXQUISITE SPA SANCTUARY.

Conceived as a true haven of light, the chalet's interior is a masterclass in texture and balance. Dark, seasoned wood panelling unifies floors and walls, providing a warm, tactile canvas that complements the clean architectural lines. The open-plan living level is anchored by a striking suspended contemporary fireplace, fostering an atmosphere of refined conviviality. Floor-to-ceiling windows frame the ever-present alpine panorama, seamlessly connecting the generous lounge, a dining table seating 12 for celebrative gatherings, and the continuous balconies and terraces with the majestic outdoors.

Accommodating up to 14 guests across seven thoughtfully appointed en-suite bedrooms, the layout ensures both privacy and comfort. The sleeping quarters are distinguished by their unpretentious, demure aesthetic. Two expansive master suites feature private dressing areas, desks, and luxurious bathrooms with both bath and shower. Four further double or twin bedrooms, complete with terraces, offer serene retreats, while a dedicated children's room, with a playful mix of bunk, single, and double beds, ensures the youngest guests have a domain of their own.

Descend into a world of holistic rejuvenation on the dedicated wellness floor. Here, life revolves around the indoor swimming pool, naturally lit by a circular skylight, creating a grotto-like ambience. The experience is deepened by a hammam, sauna, and a massage room, complemented by a tranquil herbal tea room for post-treatment calm. For more active pursuits, a fully equipped fitness room awaits. Evenings are claimed by the private cinema room or the adjacent bar, spaces where the chalet's material consistency and visual calm extend to every moment of your stay.

A private elevator services all levels, while a well-appointed ski room with individual lockers ensures gear is always at the ready. Secure parking accommodates vehicles, and a dedicated laundry facility adds to the seamless convenience.
